Prod/Writers/Re-Mixer/Rhythm

Sly Dunbar & Robbie Shakespeare's influence on the evolution of reggae music over the last twenty years has been so enormous that it reads like a who's who of Jamaican music. Their work spans everything from early sessions like Dave & Ansel Collins "Double Barrel" to the finest recordings of the 70s (Black Uhuru, The Wailers, Burning Spear, King Tubby, Lee Perry etc.) on to the present day via ragamuffin, lovers' rock and dancehall. Their own label – Taxi Records – formed in 1980, continues to showcase the best of the Jamaican reggae scene. They have just been honoured with a Grammy for their latest album.

As Musicians and producers, their work has crossed over into many different styles from classic Grace Jones albums ("Night Clubbing" & "Living My Life"), to session for Bob Dylan, The Rolling Stones, Joe Cocker & Joan Armatrading with recent productions for Cindi Lauper, Simply Red, Betty Boo, Suggs & Chakademus & Pliers confirming their status as hit makers and masters of studio technology.

Their most recent production success is No Doubt's latest radio hit single "Hey Baby", taken from new album "Rock Steady" and featuring Jamaican MC Bounty Killer. The track went Top 10 in the Billboard charts, and entered the UK charts at No.2, They are also currently doing a re-mix for Sarah McLachlan.
